

Michigan Community Roundtable on South Asian Issues

Thursday, January 24th (7p.m. at the Mercy Center)

Community leaders, organizational representatives, and advocates are invited to a Community Roundtable to discuss and learn about issues affecting the South Asian community locally and nationally.

This event is sponsored by South Asian American Leaders of Tomorrow (SAALT)
www.saalt.org

in partnership with:

Michigan Asian Indian Family Services
www.maifs.org

Council on Asian Pacific Americans
www.capa-mi.org

Asian Indian
Women's Association
www.aiwami.org

Goals of the roundtable:

- To discuss issues such as immigration, access to services, and civil rights
- To identify ways to encourage civic and political participation by South Asians in Michigan
- To exchange ideas and document information among local organizational representatives and advocates
- To receive a national update about issues affecting South Asians and legislative changes in 2008

DATE: Thursday, January 24th

TIME: 7:00-9:00p.m.

LOCATION: Mercy Center- Conference Room
28650 11 Mile Rd.
Farmington Hills, MI 48336

RSVP: Please RSVP by Friday, January 18th by e-mailing saalt@saalt.org or calling SAALT at (301) 270-1855. Light refreshments provided.

SAALT is a national, non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to fostering civic and political engagement by South Asians in America so that South Asians will have influence over policies that affect us. SAALT uses a social justice framework that combines policy analysis and advocacy, community education, coalition building, leadership development and capacity building to meet our mission.

